

UNH Beast of the East Band Cheer Bible

HOCKEY

PRE-GAME

Refs take the ice (to the tune of Three Blind Mice):

“Four blind refs. Four blind refs.

See how they skate. See how they skate.

Their whistles are stuck and their eyes are closed. What they call, nobody knows.

Four blind refs. [clap-clap] Four blind refs. [clap-clap]”

TUBAS (short):

As opposing players are announced. After each name: [CLAP!] “~~You suck!~~” or “Who cares?!”

After their goalie is announced: “SIEVE! SIEVE! SIEVE! SIEVE! SIEVE!”

After referees’ names are announced: [miss clap above head] “OOPS!”

GO, FIGHT, WIN! (GFW)

This cheer is performed immediately at the start of every period (as soon as the puck is dropped). It is also performed after the goal announcement following each UNH goal (provided the puck is in play). It is also occasionally performed when the team needs a little extra pumping up. It is performed only while the puck is in play.

Often followed by, “Come on ‘Cats!” “Let’s go UNH!” “Go White!”

UNH GOAL CELEBRATION

Band plays Rock and Roll, Part II (RNR). Fans hold up the number of fingers corresponding with the number of goals and swirl above head.

During song, shout “SIEVE!” when people usually shout “Hey!”

Keep fingers swirling above head until the end of the goal read.

Goal read:

John: “UNH goal scored by number ##, Name, assisted by number ##, Name. Time of the goal, : of the 1st/2nd/3rd period. That’s Name from Name at : of the 1st/2nd/3rd period.”

Fans: “ #! We want more!” (w/bass drum hit on number)

Then GFW.

Then, vocal/band version of RNR.

If there is a stoppage after the goal announcement, then RNR may come before GFW.

If the vocal version of RNR is still going during a stoppage, the band will join in PLAYING wherever they are in the song.

SIEVE TAUNTS

These are primarily performed during the first and third periods.

“Hey, Sieve Name, here comes the hex!” [cast a spell complete with sound effects]
